 Employees must apply to DeVry University and be admitted and accepted as a student, meet all prerequisite and course requirements, and take the complimentary course within their first session of enrollment. Students who place at foundations level may not participate in the program until they have successfully completed their foundational prep coursework. The JumpStart complimentary course applies to courses at DeVry University and its Keller Graduate School of Management. Those interested in a 4-credit-hour course may enroll. 3 credit hours would be complimentary and the student will be responsible for the tuition of the remaining credit hour. Students are responsible for all other fees and charges, including books and the Learning Management System (LMS) fee.
